Pacific Retail Management's Equipment Cash Back – an additional $35,000 cash back for new store equipment!

Pacific Retail Management has once again drawn headlines by announcing its special equipment rebate to match the Federal Government's 50% equipment tax break for all small businesses. Simply purchase a new GO Sushi store between now and December 30th and Pacific Retail Management will refund you 50% of your equipment costs (up to $35,000) to fit out your new store.

The new initiative represents a $35,000 saving on investing in a new GO Sushi business and enables small business and franchising enthusiasts to fulfil their dream of owning and running their own business, within an established and growing franchise network. The special offer is available for all new GO Sushi stores from now until the 30th December 2009 for new franchisees that sign their franchise agreements and pay their initial opening costs before the end of the year.

“With the financial crunch still weighing heavily on our minds, and affecting potential business owners’ ability to raise finance, this initiative helps new business owners start their dream of owning and running their own Go Sushi business. The combination of the 50% tax break, and the equipment cash back will lessen the burden on what is deemed to be expensive equipment finance for new franchisees ” says Chris Jordinson, Director.

GO Sushi is at the forefront of the sushi industry by offering its ever increasing customer base a fast, fresh sushi product. Go Sushi have taken an Eastern favourite and given it a Western twist, without losing the essence or flavour of this wholesome and traditional food. Australian’s are always on the look out for a new, fresh, healthy and fast alternative. Now we have found the perfect solution.....one of Australia’s most exhilarating franchise systems, GO Sushi provides customers a fast, delicious product specially tailored to the Australian market.

Go Sushi has just welcomed new franchisees in Broome, Surfers Paradise and its new business partners in France.
