Pacific Retail Management Economic Stimulus Package – injects $50,000 back to new business owners

Pacific Retail Management has announced its own economic stimulus package today - waiving the $50,000 upfront franchise fee to own a GO Sushi franchise outlet in Australia.

The new initiative represents a $50,000 saving on investing in a new business and enables small business entrepreneurs to fulfil their dream of running their own business, within an established franchise network. The special offer is available for all new GO Sushi stores from the 1st of February 2009 until the 30th of June 2009 and includes franchisees that have signed their franchise agreements and paid their initial opening costs.

“The opening of new stores will drive up job opportunities in the retail food sector, and increase cash-flow for other businesses including our supply partners and distributors” says Chris Jordinson, Director. “More importantly more people will be able to experience the great taste of freshly prepared sushi from GO Sushi at more outlets around Australia.”

GO Sushi is at the forefront of the sushi industry by offering its ever increasing customer base a fast, fresh sushi product. Go Sushi have taken an Eastern favourite and given it a Western twist, without losing the essence or flavour of this wholesome and traditional food.

Australian’s are always on the look out for a new, fresh, healthy and fast alternative. Now we have found the perfect solution.....one of Australia’s most exhilarating franchise systems, GO Sushi provides customers a fast, delicious product specially tailored to the Australian market.
